PHINEHAS WHEELER AND HIS WIFE, MARY McCOBB

A Genealogical and Biographical Sketch

Phinehas Wheeler was born on 2 July 1757 in Rutland, Worcester County, Massachusetts.[1] He was the son of James Wheeler who was probably born 7 April 1722 in Concord, Middlesex County, Massachusetts[2] and Abigail Ball, born 19 January 1734 in Rutland, the daughter of Eleazer Ball and Abigail Ball[3] James Wheeler and Abigail Ball married 24 May 1750 in Rutland.[4] Phinehas was the fifth of nine children all born in Rutland to James and Abigail Wheeler.[5]

No information has surfaced concerning his early years in Rutland; however, we do know that he was on a list of men raised to serve in the Continental Army from Rutland. "Continental Army pay accounts for service from March 10, 1777, to Dec. 31, 1779; reported as serving 30 mos. 7 days as Corporal, 3 mos. 14 days as Sergeant;"[6] The summary of WHEELER PHINEAS (also given J. and Phil'n) from Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors of the Revolutionary War served in Captain Adam Wheeler's Company, Colonel Thomas Nixon's Regiment. He was discharged on March 20, 1782, after James Wheeler took his place in the Army.[7]

On 20 May 1782 in Rutland exactly two months after his discharge from the Army, Phinehas Wheeler married Mary McCobb,[8] born 25 March 1758 in Rutland, daughter of William McCobb[9] and probably Mary Crawford. William McCobb and Mary Crawford were married 15 April 1745 in Rutland.[10]

The copy of a copy of the bible records for Phineas Wheeler showed that their first child was born in January 1783. The entry was "First child a daughter Jan. 2nd, 1783."[11] No further record of this daughter has been found; therefore, it seemed reasonable to speculate that she might have died as a result of premature birth or other complications.

Phinehas Wheeler reenlisted in the Army circa January 1783. The summary of his military service provided the following statement: "also, Sergeant, Capt. Heywood's (4th) co. Col. Benjamin Tupper's (6th) regt."[12] Muster rolls for January, March, and April, 1783, show that he was appointed Sergeant in February [year not given] and served in the register of contingencies in Captain Heywood's company, 6th Massachusetts regiment. He was reported furloughed on June 10, 1783, until the declaration of peace.[13]

He was listed on some muster and payrolls that were dated and certified at Camp Highlands, West Point, Dobb's Ferry, Camp at Peekskill, and Verplanck's Point.

In a descriptive list dated West Point, January 29, 1781, Captain Heywood's company 6th Massachusetts regiment commanded by Lieut. Colonel Smith, Phineas Wheeler was described as follows: rank, Sergeant; age, 24 yrs.; stature, 5 ft. 7 in.; complexion, light; hair, dark; eyes, blue; birthplace, Rutland; residence, Rutland; engaged, 1777 by Capt. Wheeler; term, during war;"[14]

The preceding excerpts from the summary that described the military service of Phineas Wheeler probably concerned the same Phinehas Wheeler whose sworn statement of 6 April 1818 was included in his pension file. The deposition verified in general terms substantial information found in the summary cited above.

In his sworn statement, he declared the following:

> "That this deponent in the month of January or February [? ?] this deponent does not distinctly remember enlisted for and during the war of the Revolution aforesaid into the first company under Captain Adam Wheeler in the Sixth Massachusetts Regiment commanded by Colonel Thomas Nixon in the Massachusetts line--and served in the said Company, Regiment, and line as a corporal and part of the time as a sargent [sic] until the last days of March in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty two--and then received his discharge from the army in consequence of having procured as a substitute the enlistment of James Wheeler into the Company Regiment and him aforesaid to serve in the room and stead of this deponent. . ."[15]

In addition, he testified concerning his reenlistment in the Army in 1783. After a lapse of almost 35 years, his memory about some details seemed hazy; but essential facts from his testimony matched important details in the summary pertaining to his reenlistment.

> "That this deponent in the month of January or February in the year one thousand Seven hundred and eighty three again enlisted in the service aforesaid against the common enemy aforesaid into the company commanded by Captain Benjamin Haywood [sic] in the Sixth Massachusetts regiment aforesaid against the common enemy aforesaid commanded by Colonel Tupper and served in said Company and Regiment against the enemy aforesaid as a sargent [sic] until the tenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred eighty three when this deponent received his discharge from the army aforesaid."[16]

The following information was shown on what appeared to be the cover of Phinehas Wheeler's pension file:

"113 - New York - Phinehas Wheeler of Warren Co. in the State of New York who was a Sergeant in the company commanded by Captain Adam Wheeler of the Regiment commanded by Colonel Nixon in the Massts line, for the term of the war, from February 1777 to 31 March 1782. Inscribed on the Roll of NEW YORK at the rate of 120.-- Dollars per month, to commence on the 4 day of March 1831. Certificate of Pension issued the 30 of July 1832 and sent to Pensioner at Warrensburgh, Thurman Co. [sic] N.Y.[17]

Handwritten portions of the preceding entry have been underlined.

Note: The following statement appeared at the end of the information on the cover of the pension file. "Arrears to 4th of March 1832, $120.--. Semi-anl. All'ce ending 4 Sep. 1832, $60.00." This note suggested that the pension amount was probably $120. year.

After his discharge from the Continental Army, Phinehas Wheeler returned to civilian life. He may have returned to Rutland after his furlough from the Army, but records indicate that the family moved to Chester, Hampshire County, Massachusetts, sometime before May 1785.

Their second child, a daughter, was born 11 April 1784; but Rutland vital records failed to show the birth of a child for Phinehas and Mary Wheeler. The copy of a copy of bible records for Phineas Wheeler provided this entry "2nd child a daughter named Betsey, born April 11, 1784."[18]

Two deeds from Worcester County, Massachusetts, provided the whereabouts of the Wheelers on 11 May 1785. One deed from Book 98, pages 287-289, was recorded 1 November 1785, and another deed from Book 98, pages 289-292, was recorded 8 November 1785. The first deed concerned the sale of "One certain tract or parcel of Meadow land situate in the Township of Rutland aforesaid being a part of the Real Estate of Wm McCobb yeoman late of Rutland deceased and is butted and bounded as follows viz. . .[19] The second deed concerned the sale of property owned by Wm. McCobb, deceased, in the town of Rutland. Both deeds were signed by the eight heirs of William McCobb and by three of their spouses.[20]

Another statement from these deeds gave their town and county of residence: "James McelHerron and Frances his wife Phinehas Wheeler yeoman & Mary his wife of Chester in the County of Hamshire [sic] & Commonwealth aforesaid. . ."[21]

It seemed clear based on information from the two deeds that the Wheelers moved to Chester from Rutland after Phinehas left the Army. Both deeds mentioned the town and county of residence for the Wheelers and the McelHerrons, sister and brother-in-law of Mary Wheeler.

These deeds provided direct evidence from public records about the Wheelers residence on 11 May 1785 and reinforced direct evidence from William McCobb's will that Mary was one of his daughters. This statement was found on the second page of his will. "To Mary McCobb who maried [sic] with Phinias [sic] Wheeler thirty seven pounds."[22]

No further direct evidence for Phinehas Wheeler's county of residence was found until the 1800 census in Vermont. Fifteen years after their sworn statement in Hampshire County, the 1800 census enumerated Phinehas Wheeler in the town of Rupert, Bennington County, Vermont.[23]

Other evidence from the copy of a copy of bible records indicated that Phineas and Mary Wheeler lived in Hebron, Washington County, New York, when their fifth child was born. A bible entry provided the following information: "5th child a daughter named Sally born Feb. 4th, 1791 in Town of Hebron, County of Washington, N.Y."[24]

In an attempt to find more direct evidence about the town, county, or state of residence for the Wheeler family, the 1790 census records for Massachusetts, New York, Vermont, and New Hampshire were searched again. One Phineas Wheeler was found in Concord, Massachusetts, but his records showed 5 free white males under 16, 1 free white male over 16, and 4 free white females.[25] [In this census, the over 16 count included heads of households.] This Phineas Wheeler was not the same man who married Mary McCobb in 1782.

The History of the Wheeler Family in America was consulted for direction and information. The compilers of this history listed the following five children for No. 10101, Phineas Wheeler: No. 10107, Betsey, born April 11, 1784; No. 10108, Abigail, born April 28, 1786; No. 10109, William, born Andover, Vt., July 6, 1788; No. 10110, Harriet, no birth date or birthplace given; and No. 10111, James, born March 5, 1795.[26] The place of birth for William provided a possible place of residence for the Wheelers; but to date, Andover Vermont, has not been verified or suggested by other sources.

The Wheeler children listed in the copy of a copy of bible records have been provided for comparison with the preceding list:

> "First child a daughter Jan. 2nd, 1783.
> 2nd child a daughter named Betsey, born April 11, 1784.
> 3rd child a daughter named Abigail born April 28th, 1786.
> 4th child a son named William born July 6, 1788.
> 5th child a daughter named Sally born Feb. 4th, 1791 in Town of Hebron, County of Washington, N.Y.
> 6th child a daughter named Polly, born Dec. 1st, 1792.
> 7th child a son named James born March 5th, 1795, in Rupert.
> 8th child a son named Samuel, born April 12th, 1798, in Rupert.
> 9th child a daughter named Harriet born April 21st, 1802 in Rupert."[27]

The first unnamed child, Sally, Polly, and Samuel were omitted from the History of the Wheeler Family in America. Both sources gave the same birth dates for Betsey, Abigail, William, and James.[28]

Direct and indirect sources from primary and secondary sources exist to indicate to this writer that the children listed in the Wheeler family bible were substantially correct. Abigail Wheeler provided the names of the surviving children of Phineas Wheeler as of 1 June 1845 in her affidavit of 28 July 1846.

Abigail's affidavit cannot confirm the circumstances of her own birth or of the births of the older children. Furthermore, she was too young to be an infallible witness concerning the births of William, Sally, and Polly She probably was a reliable witness for the birth of James [born 1795], Samuel [born 1798], and Harriet [born 1802]. Abigail mentioned six children in her affidavit, Betsey [born 1784], Abigail [1786], William [1788], Polly [1792], James [1795], and Harriet [1802].[29] Sally, born in 1791, died in 1829.[30] Samuel, born in 1798, probably died before 1 June 1845. Sally and Samuel were not mentioned as surviving children as of 1 June 1845.[31]

Abigail's affidavit provided direct evidence from a primary source about James and Harriet as children of Phineas Wheeler. It gave direct evidence from a secondary source about Betsey, Abigail, William, and Polly.

Phinehas Wheeler's affidavit of 8 May 1821 mentioned his three children who lived with him. They were a son, Samuel, age 23; a daughter, Harriet, age 19; and his eldest daughter, [probably Betsey], age 37.[32] Betsey, born in 1784, was 37 years old in 1821. The preceding remark reinforced a suspicion that the first child died young. Phinehas further stated that "My other children all reside away from me.--"[33] His affidavit gave direct evidence from a primary source about his father/child relationship with Samuel and Harriet. The indirect evidence probably related to Betsey.

They probably were still living in Rutland when their first child was born on 2 January 1783. However, Rutland birth records failed to show any children born to Phinehas and Mary Wheeler.[34]

Mary E. Watson made the copy of a copy of Phineas Wheeler's bible records. She stated the following in her introductory paragraph: "family record of Phineas Wheeler, who was the father of Sally Wheeler, who was the wife of Pelatiah Richards, and mother of Mary E. Watson."[35] In addition, the bible records showed that "Sally Richards died March the 20th, 1829 in the town of Warrensburgh."[36] Sally's headstone in the Old Warrensburgh Cemetery gave her age at death and confirmed her date of death. Her inscription read: "In Memory/SALLY RICHARDS/ Consort of/PELATIAH RICHARDS/Who Died March/20, 1829/Aged 38 Years".[37] This direct evidence from secondary sources indicated that Sally Richards was born Sally Wheeler. However, the evidence cannot be considered clear and convincing.

The birthplaces mentioned for some of the Wheeler children gave clues to the Wheeler family's places of residence. However, several unanswered questions remain. Did the Wheelers move from Chester, Hampshire County, Massachusetts, with one or two stops in other states before arriving in Hebron, Washington County, New York, in 1791? Thei.r bible records revealed that their fifth child was born in Hebron in 1791.[38] Did they move directly from Hebron to Rupert, Bennington County, Vermont? The 1800 census recorded Phinehas Wheeler in Rupert, Vermont.[39] In addition, their bible records gave Rupert as the place of birth for their last three children.[40] The 1810, 1820, and 1830 censuses listed Phinehas Wheeler in Caldwell, New York. Even though, the 1810 census reported him in Washington County, his town of residence did not change on the 1820 and 1830 census. When Warren County was created from Washington County in 1813, the town of Caldwell was in the newly created county.[41]

What impact did Phinehas Wheeler's occupation have on their migration from Massachusetts to New York to Vermont and back to New York? On the final page of his sworn statement 8 May 1821, he stated: "I was born in Rutland in Massachusetts, am now in my 64th year, my health has been quite poor for a number of years--and I can labor but very little. I am troubled with a very bad back in my body--I am by occupation a cooper--(Signed), Phinehas Wheeler."[42]

Coopering was an ordinary occupation in our early history; but since it is no longer a common vocation, a dictionary definition has been included:

"Cooper - n - (1) One who makes or repairs barrels, casks, etc.; specif. one whose work is coopering a (specified) thing or in a (specified) way, as in box cooper, dry cooper, tight cooper, wet cooper, and wine cooper."[43]

Phinehas Wheeler's statements concerning his occupation and his state of health suggested clues and served as a basis for assumptions that may or may not be correct. When he was 64 years old he stated in his deposition that "I am by occupation a cooper."[44] He lived in heavily wooded states much of the time; and since his occupation probably needed a ready supply of raw materials for products, he might have been forced to move frequently.

In his early fifties, the family stopped moving from place to place. He possibly found a long-term employer; or as his pension file suggested to this writer, he may have tried farming on a part-time or full-time basis.

From his pension file, we learned that he and his wife both suffered physical and financial burdens. In his sworn statement of 6 April 1818, he concluded with this statement: "And this deponent further saith that he is in the sixty first year of his age and that he is now by reason of his reduced circumstances in life in need of assistance from his Country for support."[45]

In the deposition of the 8th of May 1821, he continued with the following: "A just, true & full inventory of the Estate of Phinehas Wheeler of Caldwell in the County of Warren a pensioner of the United States under the Act of Congress of March 18th, 1818--to wit[46]

"I reside on a farm containing sixty acres of land in Caldwell aforesaid, with a log house and framed barn on it--this land was formerly mine, but was Sold in March last by the Sheriff of the County of Warren, by virtue of an execution issued against me on a judgment rendered against me, about the first of January last for $110.56 damages and costs. Mr. Wheeler continued with further details of the sale and with an inventory of his possessions. In his testimony, he certified "that the preceding is a true copy of the Schedule and statement of Phinehas Wheeler a pensioner of the United States, this day exhibited with said court--by order of aforesaid court I do further certify that the value of the property mentioned in the said Schedule is One hundred and Twenty six dollars and Eighty Six cents."[47]

Some remarks from this sworn statement revealed the amount of the pension received from the 6 April 1818: "during his service in the Revolutionary War, this deponent was in several battles and skirmishes. That he has drawn a pension at the rate of Eight dollars a month from the sixth of April 1818 to the 4th of March 1820 by virtue of the certificate aforesaid--"[48]

It seemed clear from the sworn statements included with his pension file that Phinehas and Mary Wheeler suffered physical and financial hardships during their last fifteen to twenty years of life. However, no detailed information about their last years has been found.

The 1830 census provided some hints concerning Phinehas Wheeler's household after Mary's death in 1829. The census showed that Phinehas was in a household with l free white male, 30 to 40; 1 free white male, 70 to 80; and 1 free white female, 40 to 50.[49] Members of the household might have been Samuel, born in 1798; Phinehas, born in 1757; Betsey, born in 1784; or Abigail, born in 1786. In 1830, Samuel was 32 years old; Phinehas, 73 years old; Betsey, 46 years old; and Abigail, 44 years old. Since Abigail was not living with her father in 1821, the one free white female was perhaps Betsey. She and Samuel were living with their father in 1821 at the time of his last affidavit in his pension file. If Samuel was with his father in 1830, he probably died between 1830 and 1 June 1845 since he was not mentioned in Abigail Wheeler's affidavit that described the children of Phineas Wheeler who survived him on 1 June 1845.[50]

At least, the 1830 census suggested that Phinehas Wheeler might not have been alone in his last years.

The time has come for the "final chapter" in the lives of my ancestors, Phinehas and his wife, Mary (McCobb) Wheeler. A notation in their bible records revealed that "Mary Wheeler died Sept. 19th, 1829 in the 72nd year of her age in Caldwell."[51] Her headstone inscription read as follows: "MARY/Wife of/PHINEHAS WHEELER/Died/Sept. 19th 1829/In her 72d/Year."[52]

An entry in their bible for Phinehas Wheeler showed that "Phineas Wheeler died June 1st at 1/2 past 2 P.M. 1836 in the 79th year of his age at Warrensburgh, N.Y."[53] The inscription on his headstone confirmed his date of death and his age at the time of death. His inscription read as follows: "PHINEHAS WHEELER/Died/June 1, 1836/In His 79th /Year."[54]

Phinehas and Mary Wheeler were buried side-by-side in the Pelatiah Richards cemetery lot in the Old Warrensburgh Cemetery, Hudson Road, Warrensburgh, New York.[55]

Evidence indicated that Pelatiah Richards, the husband of Sally Richards, was a son-in-law of Phinehas and Mary Wheeler. The introductory paragraph of the copy of the copy of the bible records stated the following: "Copy of a copy made by Mrs. Mary E. Watson, wife of James H. Watson, of 421 Grand Avenue, Brooklyn, N.Y. of the family record of Phineas Wheeler, who was the father of Sally Wheeler, who was the wife of Pelatiah Richards, and mother of Mary E. Watson."[56]

Abigail Wheeler's affidavit provided one piece of direct evidence from a primary source concerning Phineas Wheeler's date of death. However, her affidavit on 28 July 1846 might not serve as a primary source for her father's date of death since she made her sworn statement ten years after his death. Other direct evidence from secondary sources presented information about Phinehas and Mary Wheeler's dates of death and their ages at death. Mary Wheeler's place of death was probably Caldwell, Warren County, New York. The 1830 census showed the Phinehas Wheeler residence in Caldwell, and the copy of a copy of bible records gave her place of death as Caldwell.[57]

Their bible records gave Phineas Wheeler's place of death as Warrensburgh, New York; and, in addition, he is buried in the Old Warrensburgh Cemetery. However, since his place of death was confirmed by direct evidence from secondary sources, additional information must be found to prove his place of death. He lived in Caldwell, New York, for 26 or more years. The census records for 1810, 1820, and 1830 listed Caldwell as his town of residence..[58] It is probably safe to speculate that Phinehas Wheeler died in either Caldwell or Warrensburgh, New York.

Records obtained for Phinehas (Phineas) and Mary Wheeler used two spellings of his name. In this biographical sketch, this writer tried to use the spelling found in the source document.

ANNOUNCES MARRIAGE

Announcements were received by friends in Puyallup, Thursday, of the marriage of Miss Dorothy Christenson to Claus S. Zoodsma at Red Field, South Dakota, last Monday.

The bride is well known in this city, having graduated from the Puyallup High school in the class of 1918. She made her home with Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Snoke for several months. She is the daughter of N. N. Christenson, who has spent several winters in Puyallup.

The couple will make their home at Ashton, S. D.

Wednesday evening about 10 o'clock the peace and quiet was suddenly disturbed by a charivari crowd who gathered to give Mr. and Mrs. Claus Zoodsma a merry ride. The conveyance was not of the latest model but the band which preceeded it played so sweetly that all enjoyed the trip. Later Claus made an excellent speech and invited the crowd to partake of a eal treat at his expense.

[illegible]ton and other cities.

The principal event of the day was a horse race in which the following gentlemen took prizes: First prize, $25.00, won by Hans Tobiassen, Kenosha; second prize, $15.00, Chr. Hansen, Kenosha; third prize $10.00, August Andersen, Racine. And thus the bravest of the brave horseback riders were amply rewarded.

A game of baseball also was played, and the younger generation enjoyed the dancing very much.

Complaints are being heard today that the street car company was far from prepared to meet the demands of its numerous patrons.

GOT IN THE WRONG CAR.

While the rush for reaching the Racine cars was at its height, P. J. Brudahl attempted to board one of the cars by entering through a window in the rear; his attempt was crowned with positive success, but keen disappointment could be read in the old man's features when he, well seated in the car, discovered the sad fact that he was on his way to Kenosha, and although Mr. Brudahl loves the Kenosha people with fervency, he deemed it more advisable to remain in Racine, and consequently was obliged to leave the car in search for one bound for Racine.

The Michigan guests left on board the steamer "City of Manistee," bringing with them the firm conviction that the people of Racine were the best in the world.

CHURCH MEMBERS PICNIC.

The Young People's society of the Emans church enjoyed an outing in Piper's grove yesterday and spent the hours with games, songs, merriment and laughter.

MOLDERS' MONSTER PICNIC.

Union park was taxed almost to its utmost capacity last Saturday night when a crowd of nearly 5,000 people were brought together through the efforts of the local Iron Molders union. The proceeds from the wholly successful affair aggregate around $500 which is to be used by the still striking molders, who as yet see no peace prospects.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Mother of 14 Paroled, She Manufactured "Moon"

Oconto, Wis.—(United Press.)—Mrs. Amelia Wolski, 50, was back at her home on a farm near here today, attending to the wants of her children, having been placed on probation by Judge H. F. Jones, after she had pleaded guilty to a charge of violating the dry law.

Judge Jones, hearing the testimony in the case, declared that Mrs. Wolski, who said she was forced to manufacture and sell moonshine to support her 14 children, was better off with her famly than in jail.

"If I placed this woman in jail, who would be the actual sufferers?" the judge asked, announcing his decision.

"The children, of course. The mother would be well taken care of in jail, but the children would become county charges. No county in the world can take care of children as well as their own mother.

"Conditions, as I understand it, were such that this mother is not so much to blame. Left alone with her children, after being deserted by her husband, she could find no other way out."

Judge Jones declared that the older Wolski children had come to him and offered to help their mother and the smaller children. He said he was confident that placing the woman on probation would do much more good than sending her to jail.

Judge Jones declared he did not wish to express himself on the prohibition law, saying, however, that if the law were enforced, it would be deserving of much merit.

Supplemental Report, Explanatory of former Report made by M. Frank Administrator of P P Green deceased

In the petition of the said administrator recorded in the office of the Judge of Probate & bearing date Dec. 6th 1851, it is mentioned that about $200. personal property (two notes against F Robinson) are in the hands of the said Administrator: It should be stated as explanatory, the said Robinson notes were put into the hands of the said Administrator by W H Green shortly prior to his, the said W H Greens removal to Central Illinois; That the said Administrator supposed at the time the said notes came into his hands that they were intended as assets of the said Estate of P P Green although not so informed by any person; and the said Administrator accordingly so reported. That subsequently it appearing that the said Robinson notes were the property of the said Wm H Green and not of the Estate of P P Green, the said administrator did on the written order and ~~statement~~ of the said W H. Green deliver the said notes to Nelson Munroe of Cleveland Ohio: The said Munroe having a ~~claim~~ ~~against~~ demand against the said W H Green. The aforesaid Robinson notes were therefore not the property of the Estate of P P Green deceased.

And the said Administrator makes a further explanatory statement: —

That the drugs & Medicines mentioned in the inventory, filed in the office of the Judge of Probate, never came into the hands or the possession of the said administrator: That the aforesaid drugs and medicines were in part the purchase of W H Green after P P Green left this state for California and by him the said W H Green ~~were~~ disposed of to J Robinson for which Robinson ~~&~~ gave the notes ~~the~~ aforementioned to satisfy demands of persons of whom the ~~goods~~ drugs &c were originally purchased and to which persons the said Wm Green was personally liable for said drugs &c That the balance of said drugs and medicines were under chattle mortgage ~~originally given~~ executed by P P Green and were delivered by W H Green to satisfy said Chattle mortgage
